Osteoporosis Canada –Tim Murray Short-Term Training Awards
2026 Application Form

The Tim Murray Short-Term Training Awards are for supporting individuals (undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoctoral fellows) interested in gaining research skills over a 3-4 month period or for participation in a scientific conference through presentation of original research findings. This Award can be used for travel expenses. The research must be related to Osteoporosis Canada's Research Priority ("to support, clinical, translational and health outcomes research that focuses on the high fracture risk population, especially on preventing fracture and their negative consequences"). Recognition of Osteoporosis Canada's support is a requirement. Applicants who have not previously received this award will receive priority for funding.
