

Osteoporosis Canada –Tim Murray Short-Term Training Awards
2019 Application Form

The Tim Murray Short-Term Training Awards are for supporting individuals (undergraduate students, graduate students, postdoctoral fellows and junior faculty) interested in gaining research skills over a 3-4 month period. This Award can be used for travel expenses. Presentation of research related to Osteoporosis Canada’s Research Priority (“to support, clinical, translational and health outcomes research that focuses on the high fracture risk population, especially on preventing fracture and their negative consequences”) at an academic meeting during this period is strongly encouraged. Recognition of Osteoporosis Canada’s support is a requirement. Applicants who have not previously received this award will receive priority for funding.

Applicants and their supervisors are strongly encouraged to be members of Osteoporosis Canada and to participate in the Canadian Musculoskeletal Conference
